Best Flutist of the Year
Native American Music Awards
Nominee

The journey begins at sunrise, with the birds singing at the break of dawn and a morning chant to honor the arrival of a new day. TallTree's own heart beats to the rhythm of a distant drum as a tribute to Mother Earth. An inspired recording of flute, vocals and nature.

"...this collection of hauntingly beautiful songs is a MUST-have."

Robert Peaslee
American Indian Music Review

CD $16.95
Cassette $11.95

TallTree and The All Nations Band created the recent release, When the Eagle Flies, which demonstrates a deep commitment to Native American cultures and traditions. This recording is a celebration of symbol and spirit, and reminds its audience that creation is interconnected and that unity is a primary value.

"...a tribute to Native lifeways... (and an) excellent addition to any listening library, home collection or spiritual treasury."

Dawn Karima Pettigrew
News from Indian Country
